

PAX, ALL IN PAY Join Hands Again on E-payment Terminal Solutions

(Hong Kong, PRC, 8 May 2017) PAX Global Technology Limited ("PAX", HKSE stock code: 00327.HK), a global leader in the provision of secure electronic payment terminal solutions, is pleased to partner with ALL IN PAY again for its 2017 terminal point-of-sale network upgrade program, together to provide a more convenient, secure and efficient payment service for consumers.

PAX will provide ALL IN PAY with a wide range of secure payment devices including countertop models S60, S78, S80, S500, S800, mobile terminals S90, S900, PINPads SP20, SP30, S300, mPOS D180, D210, smarter countertop terminal D800, PAD ECR D820, mobile tablet A920, and smart card terminals T610 & T620.

ALL IN PAY is one of the largest third-party service providers in China, offering new economic field payment solutions including electronic payment strategy and electronic business apps. This year ALL IN PAY chooses PAX's PAD ECR D820 in pairs with mPOS D180 to meet small and medium merchants' rising needs on all-in-one device. D820 can accommodate all major brands of tablet, POS, mPOS and peripheral hardware, enabling merchants to reinvent their traditional checkout space with a cleaner-looking and more innovative approach.

Mr. Yongqiang Qi, Vice President for Sales at PAX, stated, "We are very grateful for ALL IN PAY's trust and support along the years. PAX will continue to keep innovating to better serve clients with superior, convenient and secure solutions and services."
