

PAX Android Smart Terminals and China UnionPay Merchant Service join hands to promote UMS Pay

(Hong Kong, PRC, 22nd January 2018) PAX Global Technology Limited (HKSE stock code: 00327.HK), one of the world's leading electronic payment terminal solutions providers, is pleased to partner with China UnionPay Merchant Service("UMS") again, to promote the UMS Pay in Chinese market.

As the technical enabler, PAX will provide its wide range of products include the Payment Tablet Terminal A920, E-series integrated Smart Terminal E500 and E800, QR code scanning terminal QR65 and QR55, Countertop Payment Terminal S800/S500/S78 and S60-S, Mobile Payment terminal D210/S900/S90 and integrated retail PINpad S300.

The E800 and E500 are the new generation of integrated smart retail terminals that help UMS provide omni channel payment and information management integrated solutions for the retail industry and the majority of medium and large merchants such as department stores, supermarkets, restaurants, hotels and shopping mall.

Mr. Yongqiang Qi, Vice President at PAX, said: "It's not doubted that the mainstream of the future payment industry is switching to the Android Smart terminals. This cooperation between PAX and the UMS will continue to strengthen PAX's market share and the leading position in the domestic market."
