Opportunities amidst COVID-19

Cashless society accelerates

- Governments encourage in-store electronic payments, driving the demand of payment terminals
- According to Visa and Mastercard, offline contactless payments increased dramatically since the onset of COVID-19

Consumer behavior changes

- The World Health Organization stated virus may spread through cash transactions
- Started from March, more than 20 European countries have increased the limit for contactless payment.
- Consumers tend to use more hygienic and faster electronic payments, i.e. contactless NFC and QR code

Strong growth driver - Android SmartPOS solutions

- PAX's Android smart terminal connects to PAXSTORE, the SaaS cloud-based application platform, carrying a library of industry value-added applications
- Deployment across the United States, Europe and Asia Pacific markets
